CHAPTER 45

Moreover, when ye shall divide the land for inheritance, ye shall bring an oblation unto the Lord, ye shall take of the land: the length shall be five and twenty thousand cubits, and the breadth shall be ten thousand cubits, holy in all the borders thereof. The square shall be five thousand cubits in length, and five thousand cubits in breadth, square round about for the altar.

2 Of this there shall be for the altar a square of five thousand cubits in length, and five thousand cubits in breadth, square round about for the altar.

10 The cubit shall have just cubits, and a just bath.

11 The cubit and the bath shall be the same measure of an homer, and the homer shall be equal to the ephah.

12 And the shekel shall be equal to the shekel of the sanctuary.

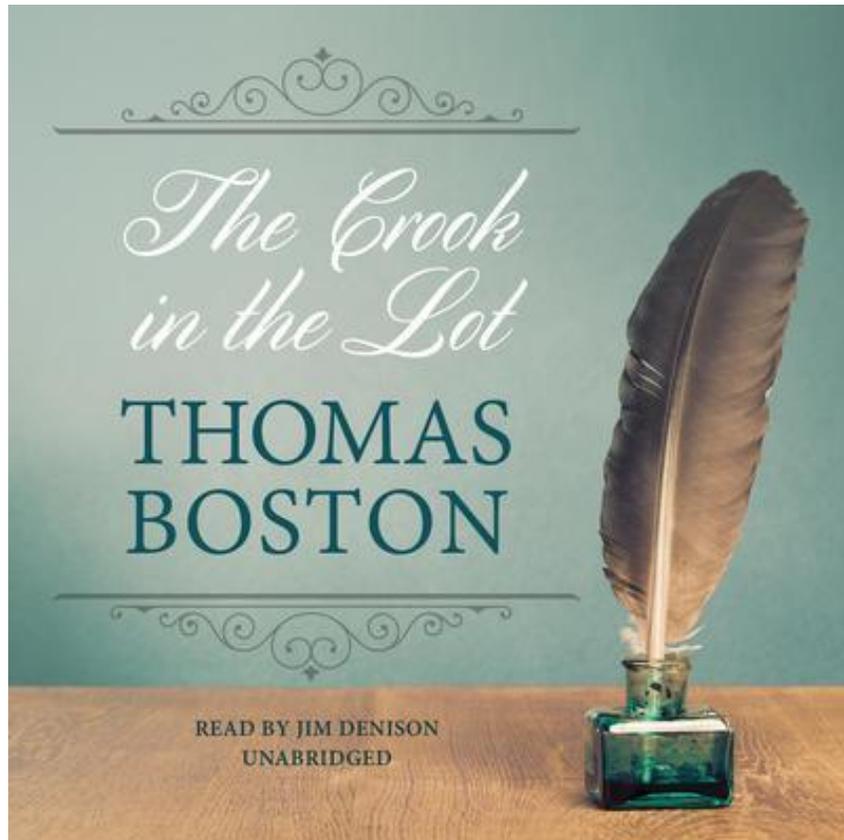

13 This is the homer, and ye shall use it as a measure.

II. What To Do?

A. We are to Consider them
(Eccles. 7:13-14).

Whoever would walk with God must be due observers of the Word and Providence of God, for by these in a special manner He manifests Himself to His people.

In the one we see what
He says; in the other what He does.

In the one we see what He says; in the other what He does. These are the two books that every student of holiness ought to be much conversant with.
