

Psalm 91

CHAPTER 45

Moreover, when ye shall divide the land for inheritance, ye shall bring an oblation unto the Lord, ye shall take of the land: the length shall be five and twenty thousand cubits, and the breadth shall be ten thousand cubits, holy in all the borders thereof. The square shall be five thousand cubits in length, and five thousand cubits in breadth, square round about for the altar.

2 Of this there shall be for the altar a square of five thousand cubits in length, and five thousand cubits in breadth, square round about for the altar.

2 Of this there shall be for the house of the Lord, a square of five hundred in length, with the breadth, square round about five hundred cubits for the altar.

10 ye shall have just a cubit, and a cubit bath.

11 The cubit, and the bath, shall be the measure of an homer, and the homer shall be the measure of an homer, the measure of an homer shall be the measure of an homer.

12 And the shekel, the shekel shall be the shekel, the shekel shall be the shekel.

13 This is the part of an homer, and ye shall have a homer.

A scenic view of a medieval castle on a hillside. The castle features stone walls, a prominent tower with a red roof, and several buildings with gabled roofs. The surrounding landscape is hazy, with snow-capped mountains in the background and autumn-colored trees in the foreground. The text is overlaid in a bold, brown, serif font.

What is the benefit of our knowing about God's providence?

The benefit of our knowing about God's providence is that it makes us patient in adversity and thankful in prosperity, so that we may place our firm trust in our Heavenly Father concerning everything that befalls us.
