

Psalm 91

CHAPTER 45

Moreover, when ye shall divide the land for inheritance, ye shall bring an oblation unto the Lord, ye shall take a shekel of silver of every man, and ye shall give it to the Lord: the length shall be five and twenty thousand cubits, and the breadth shall be ten thousand cubits, and it shall be holy in all the borders thereof. The length shall be five thousand cubits, and the breadth shall be five thousand cubits, and it shall be holy. Of this there shall be for the house of the Lord, a square round about five hundred cubits in length, and five hundred cubits in breadth, square round about for the altar.

So He gives us evidence of His providence

What is God's providence?

The LORD has established His throne in the heavens, and His sovereignty rules over all (NASB; Ps. 103:19).

Whatever the LORD pleases, He does, in heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps (NASB; Ps. 135:6)

Are not two sparrows sold for a cent? And yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered (NASB; Matt. 10:29-30).

For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever. Amen (NASB; Rom. 11:36).

God's providence is His most holy, wise, and powerful preserving and governing of all His creatures and all their actions, to His own glory.

(Adapted from the Westminster Shorter and Larger catechisms, Qs. 11, 18)

Providence. Think of the word, provide. Providence concerns all that God provides for His creatures; their circumstances, sustenance, preservation, government, abilities, successes, failures, usefulness, etc.

What is the benefit of our knowing about God's providence?

The benefit of our knowing about God's providence is that it makes us patient in adversity and thankful in prosperity, so that we may place our firm trust in our Heavenly Father concerning everything that befalls us.
