THE BURIAL OF THE FIRST
PROTESTANT
MINISTER
IN GLASGOW
NOV 1572

“Dinna say Mass
in my lug!”

Full challengers, take heed what you do see
 This tomb doth show for what some men did die
 Here lies inter'd the dust of those who stood
 Against perjury, resisting unto blood.
 Adhering to the Covenants, and laws
 Establishing the same; which was the cause
 Their lives were sacrific'd unto the lust
 Of Prelates abjur'd. Theyg't here their dust
 Lies mixt with murderers, and other crew,
 Whom justice justly did to death pursue;
 But as for them, no cause was to be found
 Worthy of death, but only they were found
 Condemn'd and seal'd, zealous witnessings,
 For the Preservatives of CHRIST their KING,
 Whose Truths were seal'd by James Guthrie's head,
 And all along to Mr. Renwick's blood,
 They did endure the wrath of enemies,
 Reproaches, torments, deaths and injuries,
 But yet they're those who from such accidents quit,
 And now triumph in glory with the LAMB.

From May 27th 1661 that the most noble Marquis of Argyll was beheaded, to the 17th of Febr 1688 that Mr. James Renwick suffer'd were one way or other Murdered and Destroyed for the same Cause about Eighteen thousand of whom were execut'd at Edinburgh about an hundred of Noblemen, Gentlemen, Ministers and Others, noble Martyrs for JESUS CHRIST. The most of them are interred in the Church of Writches, Crossstanes and Deacons Halls.

For a particular account of the cause and manner of these noble
 Martyrs see the History of the Church of Scotland, and the History of the Martyrs of the Cause of Liberty and Justice in Great Britain, by Mr. James Burnet, Bishop of Salisbury.

Dunnottar Castle is a dramatic and evocative ruined fortress located in a truly stunning cliff top setting.

As you wander around the extensive buildings you will discover an impressive castle that holds many rich secrets of Scotland's colourful past, helping to bring history alive.

The Castle was the home of the Earl Marischal, once one of the most powerful families in the land.

William Wallace, Mary Queen of Scots, the Marquis of Montrose and the future King Charles II all graced the castle with their presence.

More famously, it was at Dunnottar Castle where a small garrison held out against the might of Oliver Cromwell's army for eight months and saved the Scottish Crown Jewels, the 'Heiresses of Scotland', from destruction.

A darker chapter in the history of Dunnottar is the gruesome story of the imprisonment of 607 Covenanters in the 'Wig's Vault' in 1685 following their refusal to acknowledge the King's supremacy in spiritual matters.

The last Earl Marischal was convicted of treason for his part in the Jacobite rising of 1715 and as a result his estates, including the Castle, were seized by the Government.

The buildings were much neglected until 1925, when the 1st Viscountess Cowdray embarked on a systematic repair of the Castle and it was officially opened to visitors thereafter, steadily becoming one of Scotland's most-visited tourist attractions.

Please take care when walking around the Castle in these wet slopes, steep steps and uneven floors - an occasional slip outside however is never-when-walking.

For your safety please do not venture off paths and areas of uneven ground.

Dunnottar Castle is a Scheduled Ancient Monument and we ask that you help us to continue to preserve it for use-both on the buildings and walls.

Dogs
Please keep all dogs on a lead.

Toilets
Toilets for paying visitors are situated in the Castle.

Disabled Access
We regret that due to the steep access paths, the Castle may be unsuitable for disabled visitors.

Litter
Please dispose of litter in the bins provided at our park.

I desire no more than to keep weight when I am past the fire; and I can now, in some weak measure, give Christ a testimonial of a lovely and loving companion under suffering for Him. I saw Him before, but afar off. His beauty, to my eyesight, groweth. . . .

I desire no more than to keep weight when I am past the fire; and I can now, in some weak measure, give Christ a testimonial of a lovely and loving companion under suffering for Him. I saw Him before, but afar off. His beauty, to my eyesight, groweth. . . .

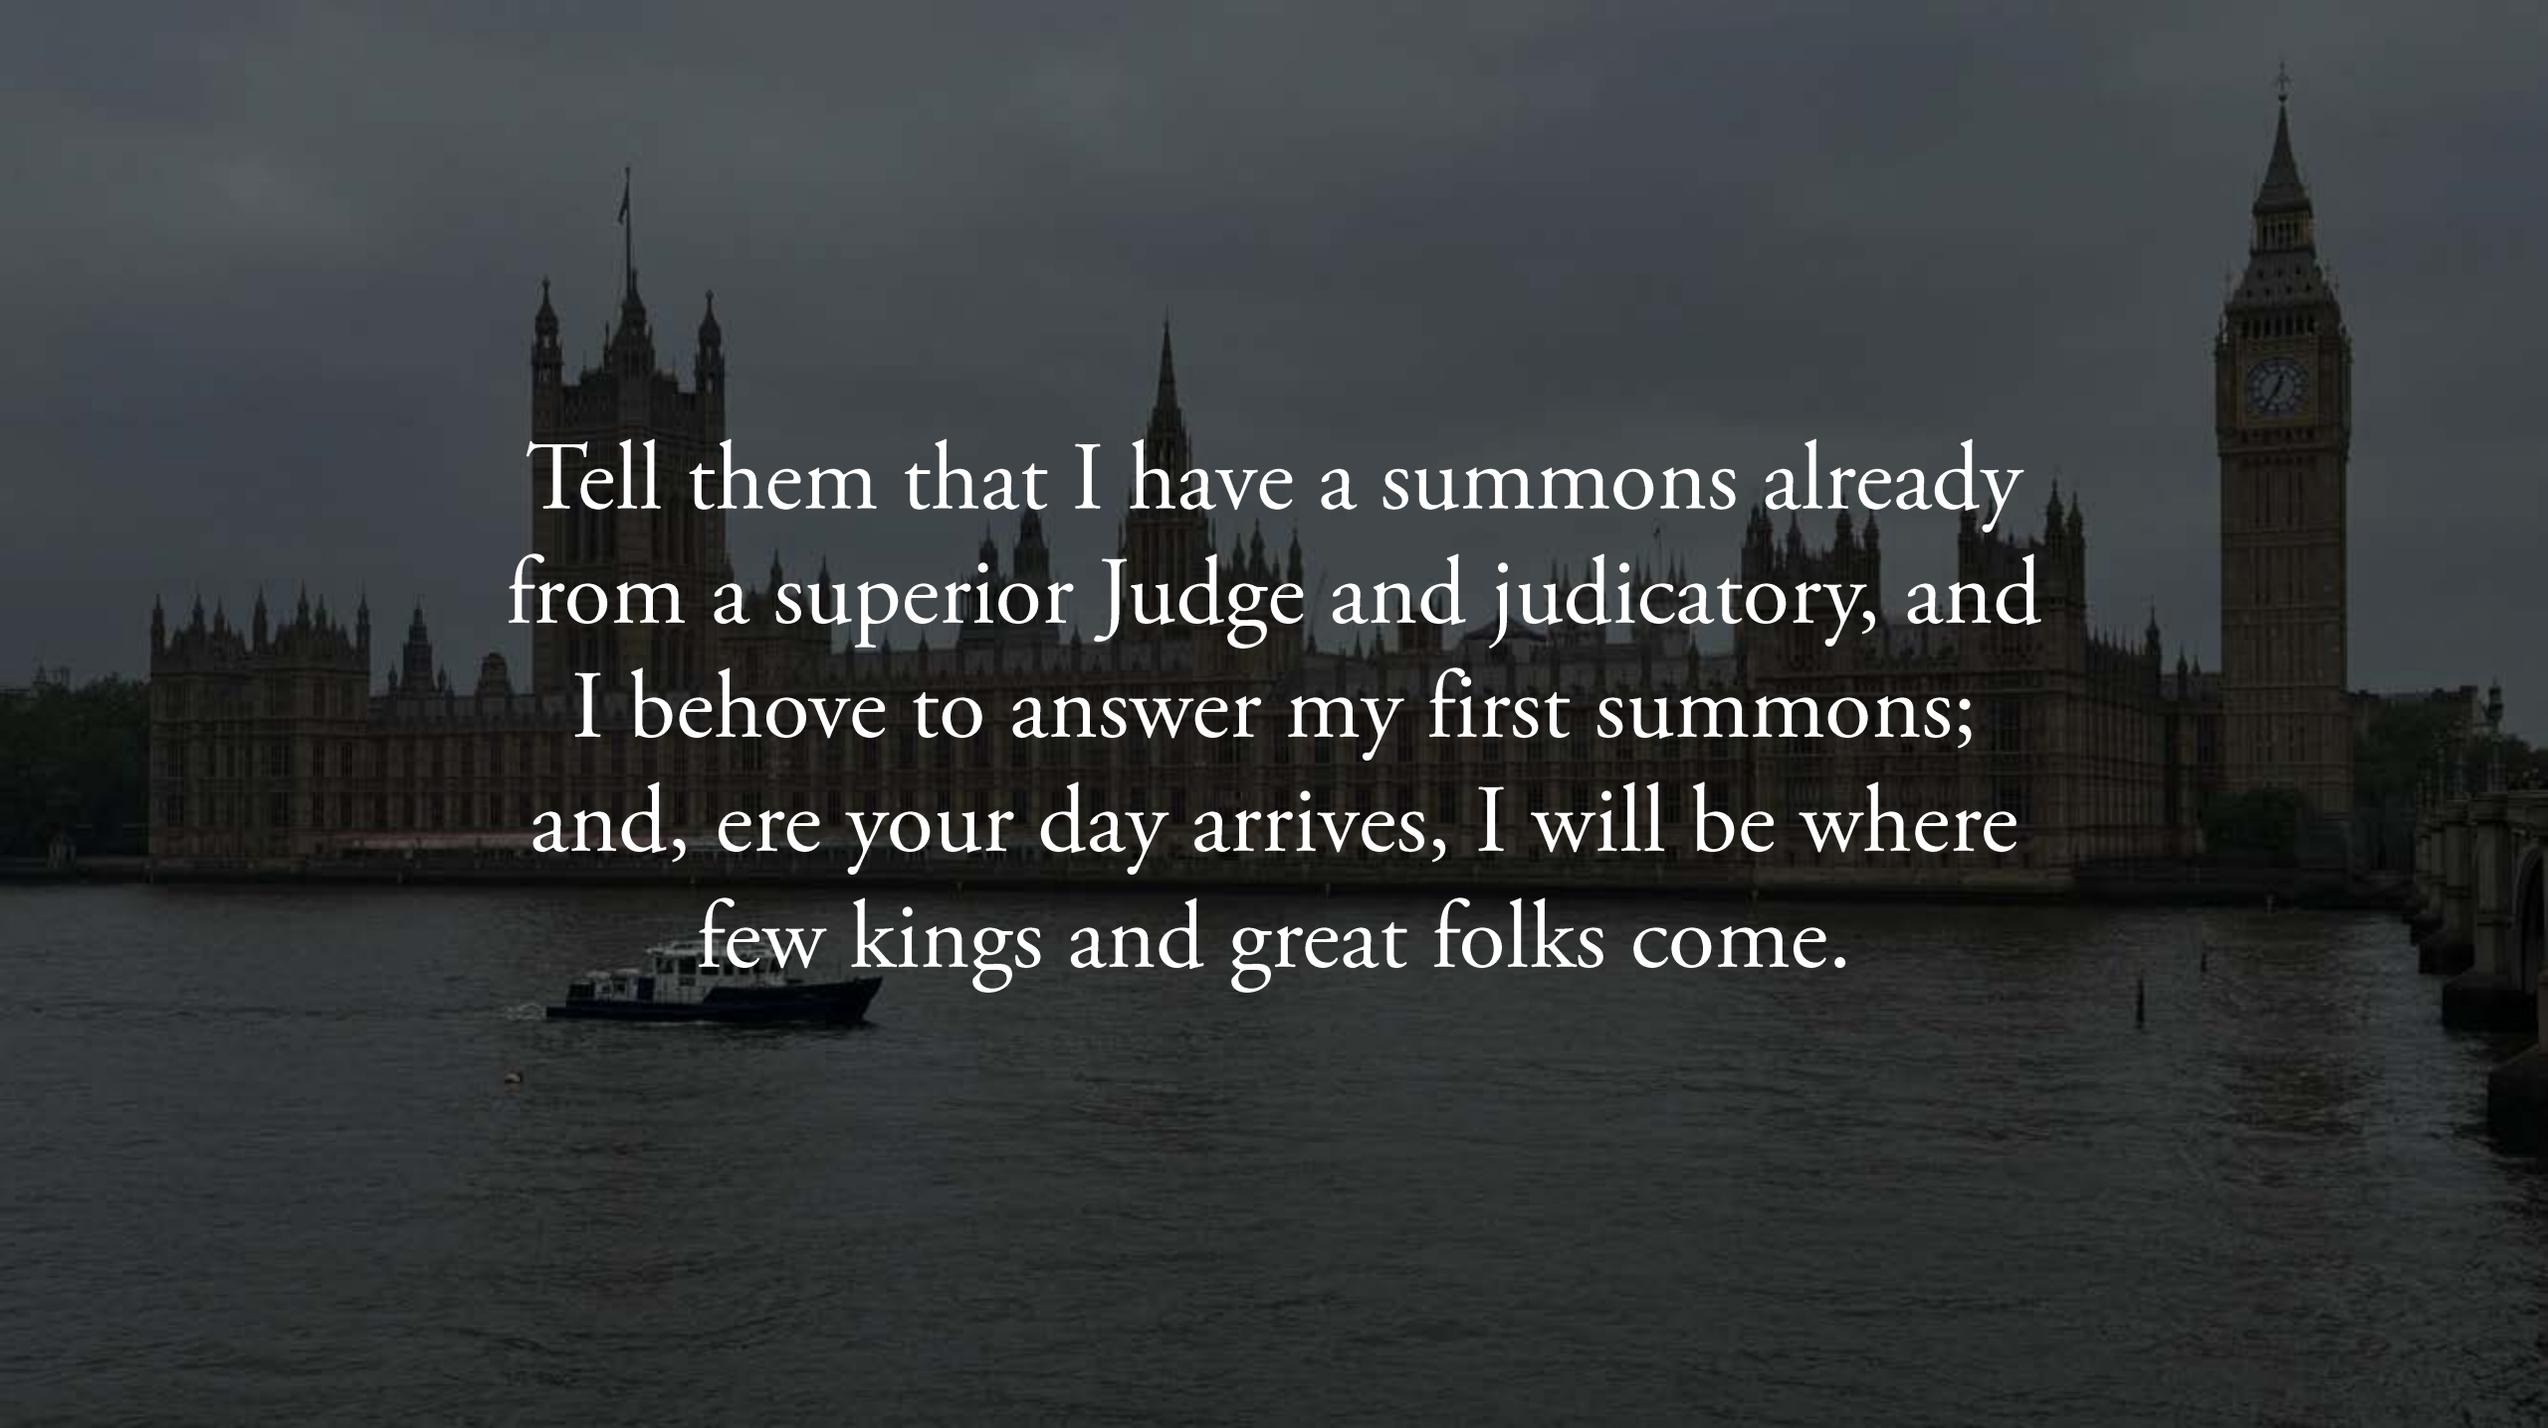

But to live on Christ's love is a king's life. The worst things of Christ, even that which seemeth to be the refuse of Christ, His hard cross, His black cross, is white and fair; and the cross receiveth a beautiful lustre and a perfumed smell from Jesus. My dear brother, scaur not at it.

ST. ANDREW'S COLLEGE, ST. ANDREWS. 1894. JAMES

Tell them that I have a summons already from a superior Judge and judicatory, and I behove to answer my first summons;
and, ere your day arrives, I will be where few kings and great folks come.

What tongue what Pen or skill of Men can Famous Rutherford commend
His Learning justly rais'd his Fame
True godliness Adorn'd HIS Name
He did converse with things Above
Acquainted with Emmanuels Love
Most orthodox He was and sound
And many Errors did confound
For Zions King and Zions cause
And Scotlands covenanted LAWS
Most constantly he did contend
Until his time was At An End
