Using Classroom at a school with students?

If so, your school must sign up for a free G Suite for Education account before you can use Classroom.
Learn More

G Suite for Education lets schools decide which Google services their students can use, and provides additional privacy and security protections that are important in a school setting. Students cannot use Google Classroom at a school with personal accounts.

The screenshot displays the 'Get Productive with G-Tools One' web application. The top navigation bar is blue with a hamburger menu, the title 'Get Productive with G-Tools One', and links for 'STREAM', 'STUDENTS', and 'ABOUT'. A user profile for 'Thomas Duncan' is shown in the top right. Below the navigation bar is a large blue header image with the text 'Get Productive with G-Tools One' and 'Thomas Duncan'. On the right side of the header, there are links for 'Select theme' and 'Upload photo'.

The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column contains a sidebar with a 'Due Friday 11:59 PM - Move Links fr...' section, a 'TOPICS' section with 'Daily Tasks', and a 'STREAM' section with a 'Show deleted items' toggle. The middle column shows 'Saved posts (1)' with a 'Scheduled posts (1)' section. Below this, a post by 'Thomas Duncan' is displayed with a 'Daily Tasks' tag, a due date of 'Due Sep 29, 11:59 PM', and a title 'Move Links from Our Current Website To the New One'. The post content says 'Take the Link Profile and place it at the new site'. Below the post, there is a 'Add class comment...' input field. The right column contains a vertical stack of buttons: 'Reuse post', 'Create question' (highlighted with a yellow circle), 'Create assignment', 'Create announcement', and a plus sign.
