Give Your Brand Account a Name

The screenshot shows the Google Brand Accounts creation interface. At the top, the Google logo is on the left, and navigation icons are on the right. Below the logo, a breadcrumb trail reads "Brand Accounts". The main heading is "To create a new channel, create a Brand Account", followed by a subtext: "This Brand Account can have a different name than your personal account, for example a business name or another name that you choose." A form field labeled "Brand Account name" contains the text "Get Productive". Below the field are two buttons: a blue "Create" button and a white "Back" button. A link "Learn more about Brand Accounts." is positioned below the buttons. A yellow circular cursor icon is centered on the page. The footer at the bottom reads "© 2017 Google".
